

Ingrid Washington
Vice President, Student Development

Ingrid Washington serves as vice president of student affairs for Gateway Community and Technical College. Washington joined Gateway in February 2005 as Title III activity director and was named dean of student affairs in August 2005. She became vice president in March 2009 and is the college's senior administrator responsible for student affairs and retention services.

Washington holds a master of arts degree in education and a bachelor of science degree in business administration, both from Union College in Barbourville, Ky.